Dr. Jennifer Howard Nominated for The Shorty Award

NEW YORK – Media savvy psychotherapist Dr. Jennifer Howard (@DrJennifer) has been nominated for the Shorty Award, which honors the best of “Short Real-Time Content.”

From the <http://shortyawards.com/about>: The Shorty Awards honor the best people and organizations on Twitter and social media. Nominations are made through Twitter and their Web site, culminating in an awards ceremony that recognizes the winners in dozens of official categories, as well as thousands of crowd-sourced categories. For the first time, the Shorty Awards will also honor the industry's best agencies and social media professionals.

The community is invited to nominate Twitter users for excellence over the past year. Each award recognizes each content creator's entire body of work, not just an individual tweet. Nominations are made by sending a tweet, whether it's through the Shorty Award Web site or on Twitter.

Dr. Jennifer Howard is pleased to have been nominated by many of her followers. She appreciates how Social Media can help her reach so many readers, as well as allow her to become acquainted with them via tweets.
